All delivery times are purely indicative, the mention 'confirmed' is only provided for your information but is noncommittal for TVH.

"X" = The lead time is based on the expected delivery date of our current purchase and sales orders and is only an indication.

The (partial or full) acceptance of this offer implies that you accept our General Terms and Conditions of Sale. Consults our general terms and conditions of sale on www.tvh.com/terms-conditions

Prices only valid as far as the reference is in stock at the moment of ordering; TVH reserves the right to adjust the Price prior to shipment in case of additional costs due to an increase exceeding three percent (3%) of the costs of (raw) material, supplier's or labor costs, import and/or export duties and/or taxes of any kind, or any other overhead costs beyond its control.

* OEM references are purely indicative and do not imply that parts originate from the original equipment or part manufacturer.

Products marked with ** come with a warranty period of 6/12/... months respectively, counting from the invoice date. During this period, the sales agent guarantees the correct functioning of the products, apart from normal wear and tear. The stated warranty is also not applicable if the correct functioning is prevented by wear resulting from external influences of chemical, thermal or mechanical origin. The right to repair or reimbursement under warranty during the warranty period becomes void as soon as the buyer or any other party performs actions to the faulty product before contacting the seller in the way agreed upon between the two parties.

Prices excluded VAT.
