Exchange and Refund Policy

Makro will refund or exchange most goods returned within 14 days of purchase, provided that the goods are in unused original condition and packaging. Certain goods are excluded from the 14-day exchange or refund policy for hygiene and legislative reasons.

Within the first six (6) months of purchase, goods with a technically confirmed defect will be repaired, replaced or refunded at your direction. It is not possible to assess goods in store to confirm the claimed defect. Makro therefore reserves the right to refer returned goods for technical assessment.

Goods purchased by way of special arrangement or custom order will only be replaced if defective.

Visit www.makro.co.za for further information.

Privacy Statement

The company respects our customer's right to privacy and will ensure compliance with the provisions of the personal information and data protection laws of our country. The company is committed to process any personal information in accordance with the provisions of these laws and will only collect the minimum personal information legally required. Any personal information supplied to the company will be treated as confidential and the company will not disclose or share it unless legally required or permitted to do so. The company will take all reasonable precautions to protect the customer's personal information.
